

Guidelines and Fee Structure for Musical Therapy

Adapted Music Lessons: A one-on-one private instrument lesson, such as piano, guitar, voice, or ukulele, taught by a Certified Music Therapist trained to adapt the lesson format and activities to the particular needs of the student. Best for children ages 6 and up. This service does not require an initial evaluation.

- Cost: $116/month for 30-min weekly lesson; $169/month for 45-min weekly lesson
- All lessons have a minimum requirement of 2 months enrollment. Payment for the upcoming month is charged on the first of each month. and do not reflect a certain number of lessons in a month; the cost is all lessons in an entire year (45) divided into 12 equal monthly payments for your convenience. While most months have 4 lessons, some have 5 and some have 3. You don't get charged more when there are 5, and you don't get charged less when there are 3. The price has taken all closings and longer months into account
- Must give 6-hours notice of cancellation in order to reschedule the lesson. No make-up will be offered for a no-show or cancellation within 6 hours of the scheduled lesson.
- Weekly lesson notes are sent to the parent after each lesson

Small Group Music Classes: A group music class taught by a Board-Certified Music Therapist who leads the students through musical activities to strengthen their social, emotional, motor, and communication skills. Groups are formed based on age and are kept small.

- Cost: $115/month for weekly 45-minute class
- Private initial evaluation is required before joining a group; fee for consultation is $50 and will provide detailed assessment and goals for your child
- All classes have a minimum requirement of 2 months enrollment. Payment for the upcoming month is charged on the first of each month and do not reflect a certain number of classes in a month; the cost is all classes in an entire year (45) divided into 12 equal monthly payments for your convenience. While most months have 4 classes, some have 5 and some have 3. You don't get charged more when there are 5, and you don't get charged less when there are 3. The price has taken all closings and longer/shorter months into account.

Private Music Therapy Sessions: A one-on-one musical session led by a Board-Certified Music Therapist that addresses the individual goals of the student. Sessions may include everything from instrument play to singing to song-writing. All activities are centered around achieving the goals and needs of the student. Best for any age.

- Cost is $50/session for 30 minutes, $70/session for 45 minutes

- Private initial evaluation is required; fee for consultation is $50 and will provide detailed assessment and goals for your child
- Minimum enrollment is 2 month
- Cancellations require 24-hour notice in order to reschedule
- Frequency and length of sessions is determined by the therapist after the initial consultation
- Payment for the upcoming month is due at the time of scheduling and will be run on the first of the month thereafter, based on the schedule of sessions